

The best thing about satellite radio is that I can receive it anywhere , unlike local radio or tv. I think that free enterprise should prevail.
If my competitors give better service or pricing than my business would be able to get legislators pass laws to protect my business? I think not Leave it alone.

No more laws regulating what we can listen to or watch.

Let freedom ring.

Mike Sturdy